Catholic Charities needs food donations

RICHMOND, VA (Aug. 1, 2005) . . . Commonwealth Catholic Charities desperately needs the following items for the agency's charity food pantry: Peanut butter, canned soup, packaged macaroni and cheese, canned or powdered milk, spaghetti sauce, boxed spaghetti, canned fruit, cold or hot cereal and boxed rice.

The CCC food pantry provides emergency food to local individuals and families. Donations of non-perishable food may be brought to the CCC main office at 1512 Willow Lawn Dr. (across from The Shops at Willow Lawn) in Richmond. Office hours are 8:30 a.m. until 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. For details call Vickie Jones at 804-285-5900, or email Vickie_jones@cccofvirginia.org.

Commonwealth Catholic Charities is a nonprofit human services agency dedicated to helping people of all faiths, especially the most vulnerable.
