Foster homes needed

RICHMOND, VA (Aug. 1, 2005) . . . Commonwealth Catholic Charities (CCC) needs foster parents for children who have been abandoned, abused or neglected. Foster parents will receive monthly financial support, training and counseling. CCC also needs supervised independent living placements for other refugee youth in foster care. If you have an extra room in your home to temporarily house a young person, CCC will provide the support.

For details about this rewarding opportunity, call BeBe Tran in Richmond at 804-285-5900, Mary Sue Libassi in Roanoke at 540-342-0411 or Donna Boggs in Norton at 276-679-1195.

Commonwealth Catholic Charities is a nonprofit human service organization that provides assistance to all people, regardless of faith, especially the most vulnerable.
