Catholic Charities announces appointments for volunteer board

ROANOKE, VA (January 31, 2008) . . . Commonwealth Catholic Charities (CCC), a nonprofit human service organization, announces the charity's Southwest Advisory Board. Patrick Fennell of Roanoke has been nominated to serve as chairperson of the all-volunteer board. Mr. Fennell is a partner at Magee, Foster, Goldstein & Sayers. Members of the board are Margaret Berry, Frances Bridge, Richard L. Derrico, James K. Dill, Randy Gatzke and Maria Morales. CCC programs offered throughout the Roanoke area include adoption, therapeutic foster care, pregnancy counseling, individual and family counseling, supervised visitation (for children and their non-custodial parents), services for seniors living alone, and family support services. For information about services or volunteer opportunities, contact Alison Drennan at 540-278-1637,
